breaks up Grip andCOLDS

Even in stringent times, when money is tight, a quarter of a dollar is not much of a risk to assure your health.

The use of a single vial of "Seventy-seven" may keep you free from Colds through the fall and winter.

A small vial of pleasant pellets fits the vest pocket.

All druggists sell, most druggists recommend "77."

SEEK TO REGISTER,
BUT ALL IN VAIN

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

NEW YORK, October 10.—A red and green motor car with a chauffeur all in yellow and otherwise occupied by radiantly gowned women and decorated with lovely golden banners, paused in front of a Harlem bakery this afternoon. Out stepped Lady Francis Cooke, the owner of the car, Mrs. Sophia Loebinger, president of the W. N. P. S. U., and Miss Mary Coleman, corporation counsel of the same. Solemnly they filed into the bakery, on the window of which was inscribed "Board of registry meets here."

The suffragettes—for such they were—worked their way through the crowd of men. The chairman of the board looked upon her with coldness, and his expression did not soften even at the sight of Miss Coleman in Alice blue.

"What do you ladies want?" he demanded brusquely.

"I am a resident of this district, and I wish to register," responded Mrs. Loebinger.

"The books are closed," said the chairman.

"I am a consumer, and therefore a taxpayer," said Mrs. Loebinger, "and I have a right to vote."

"You're consuming my time all right," conceded the chairman.

Men who were waiting to register laughed. Miss Coleman stepped forward.

"The Constitution of the United States gives all citizens a right to vote," she said, "and you have no business to interfere with it."

"Officer, clear this room," observed the chairman.

A tall, slender bluecoat from the Sixth Precinct stepped forward, looked at the children cloth sleeve that contained Mrs. Loebinger's arm and then at his own hands, and stepped back.

"Officer," said Miss Coleman, "if you so much as lay a finger upon that lady or any of the other ladies I'll swear out a warrant against you for assault."

The officer fled to the back of the room. The suffragettes turned their backs upon him and marched to the door in a body. They re-entered the red and green car, and were carried to a barber shop at 659 Lenox Avenue, where they were met by a reinforcement of twenty members.

Miss Murphy here engaged for the second time in a struggle with Julius Brussell, who prevented her from registering on Monday last. He was just as mean as ever, and told her that he was not going to lose his place for her.

The next registry office visited was on St. Nicholas Avenue between 114th and 115th Streets. Mrs. Brett, who is a sister of Mrs. Lydia Kingsmill, commander, pitted her eloquence against that of the acting chairman, William Schwarz, until Lady Cooke announced that she was so tired that she would have to go home and rest awhile and would send the car back for the rest of them. The car came back. It is true, but beside it rode a bicycle policeman.

DRUNK WITH POWER IS MR. ROOSEVELT

Harry St. George Tucker, in Speech at Winchester, Ladies Administration.

APPOMATTOX FORMS CLUBS

Political Awakening Is Apparent in Every Precinct of Entire County.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

WINCHESTER, VA., October 10.—Hon. Harry St. George Tucker, candidate for Governor of Virginia, addressed an audience that completely filled the courthouse hall last night. The meeting was under the auspices of the Bryan-Kern-Hay Democratic Club, of Winchester.

Mr. Tucker dissected and assailed the Republican platform, plank by plank, and pointed out its inconsistencies. Mr. Tucker said Roosevelt "is drunk with power," and that centralization was his dream and ambition; that if Federal judges appointed by the administration don't do what they are told, and if Congress cannot be ruled to submission, then the "big stick" will be brought into play and Czar Roosevelt will ride over the masses to victory. Taft is Roosevelt's man, and either might just as well be elected.

BRYAN-KERN-FLOOD CLUB

Citizens of Ten Appomattox Precincts Are Very Active.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

APPOMATTOX, VA., October 10.—As an evidence of the fact that the Democrats of Appomattox are thoroughly aroused in this campaign, there was organized to-day at each of the ten precincts of the county a Bryan-Kern-Flood Club. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, the meetings were largely attended and great enthusiasm prevailed. There was a central club formed at the county seat, and Commonwealth's Attorney S. L. Ferguson, whose zeal for the party knows no bounds, was elected president. Mr. B. F. Oden, secretary, and Hon. J. R. Horsley, treasurer. Quite a handsome sum was raised to forward to the national committee.

This county has the honor of naming both the Democratic and Republican nominees for Congress for the Tenth District. Hon. H. D. Flood, who is the idol of the Appomattox Democracy, being opposed by Hon. W. C. Franklin. The county will give one of the largest majorities in the fall that it has ever given the Democratic ticket.

TAFT TO GO TO BRISTOL

Republicans There Are Enthusiastic and Plan Great Rally.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

BRISTOL, VA., October 10.—Three distinguished speakers including William Howard Taft, will speak in Bristol next week. Governor Patterson of Tennessee, will speak Monday night, former Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw Tuesday night, and Judge Taft Friday night. The news that Judge Taft would speak here was received with enthusiasm. The local Republicans are planning to give him a notable ovation. The Harlequin Theatre has been engaged for the occasion, but in the event the weather is suitable, the Taft speaking will take place in the Chautauqua Tabernacle, which seats 4,000.

FLOOD TO SPEAK IN NORTH.

Bryan Calls Upon Congressman to Aid in National Campaign.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

APPOMATTOX, VA., October 10.—Congressman Flood has received the following telegram from William J. Bryan:

"Please wire and write John H. Atwood, chairman Democratic speakers' bureau, exact number of days and where you can speak during October in New York, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin. This is of vital importance."

Please give all the time you possibly can, William J. Bryan.

Mr. Flood is anxious to do all the speaking he can in the Western States for the national committee, and has communicated with Hon. J. Taylor Eliason to see if Mr. Eliason can get some one else to fill his Virginia appointments. If this can be arranged Mr. Flood will speak in some of the Western States ten days or two weeks before election.

MAKE EARNEST BID FOR VOTE OF LABOR

Included William S. Cowherd, nominee for Governor; former Governor Lon Stephens, David A. Ball, Judge William H. Wallace and J. F. Stapel, the defeated candidate for Governor; W. R. Painter, nominee for Lieutenant-Governor; State Chairman Ruben and former Governor David R. Francis.

Several of them in turn introduced their standard-bearer, and each with each other in the use of complimentary references to him. The trip from Independence to Kansas City was made in motor cars.

Success Means Prosperity.

From the moment of his first utterance until he had concluded his remarks, Mr. Bryan declared that the electoral vote of the State of Missouri was safely Democratic, and he devoted considerable time to urging the people to elect the entire State ticket, as well as a Legislature, which would send to Washington a Democratic Senator. He sought to instill in the minds of his hearers the fact that a Democratic victory this year meant a return of prosperity. He did not overlook President Roosevelt in discussing the trust question, and read a communication from the acting Attorney-General of the United States, which he interpreted as a direct refusal on the part of the law department of the government to prosecute a corporation for conducting its business in restraint of trade. He produced the letter, he said, and the inquiry of the trusts, and attacked the President, as he charged, for shirking his duty.

Mr. Taft, as usual, got his share of criticism, the Democratic candidate pointing out that his Republican opponent was going around the country making promises which he knew he could not fulfill, for he said the Republican party was unable to offer any real reforms.

False Cry Creates Panic.

While speaking at Glasgow to a big crowd, an ineffectual panic occurred, caused by some one making an outcry that a train was coming. Men, women and children, in their desire to get off the tracks, were knocked down, several women fainted, and two old men and an old woman appeared to be badly hurt. Mr. Bryan urged the people to be calm. The train was flagged, and the fight was over. The crowd again surged around the candidate's car, and he spoke a few minutes longer.

Mr. Bryan left at midnight for Lincoln, where he will remain until Tuesday morning, when he again starts Westward, spending three days in Nebraska and making flying trips to Colorado and Wyoming.

The Campaign Fund.

KANSAS CITY, MO., October 10.—William J. Bryan, in his address here to-day referred to the Democratic campaign fund. He said:

"Our platform declares in favor of publicity as to campaign contributions, and that publicity is to be before the election. We made an appeal for popular subscriptions, and as a result we have collected over $160,000. In addition to this we received about $40,000 from the Denver fund, that being the amount left of the $100,000 given by the city of Denver to defray the expenses of the convention. That would make the campaign fund to-day between $200,000 and $220,000. This fund has been collected largely in small amounts. The people, each contributing a little, have furnished the money with which we are making this campaign."

"But we have three weeks yet, and during those three weeks we shall need a considerable amount for the legitimate purposes of the campaign. We need $100,000 more, and it ought to be easy to collect that sum from the Democrats who endorse our platform and who are interested in Democratic success. A dollar apiece could be given by many thousands, and we have many hundreds who could give from $100 to $500. Mr. Mack, chairman of the national committee, joins me in making this appeal to Democrats throughout the country. Mail your check at once to Herman Ridgely, treasurer of the national committee, Hoffman House, New York, or to Norman E. Mack, Auditorium, Chicago. If we can raise our policies to the situation."

the public and get our forces organized we shall win a splendid victory."

MORE LETTERS ARE READ

Hearst Submits Those to McLaughlin, Edmunds and Sibley.

BERKELEY, CAL., October 10.—William Randolph Hearst spoke here this afternoon in the Hearst Greek Amphitheatre, and during the course of his speech read several more alleged Standard Oil letters, as follows:

"26 Broadway, February 5, 1901.

"My Dear Senator, I have your most kind favor of yesterday and appreciate it greatly. I have also a telegram from Mr. Grasty to-day, which I have answered, and which answer I hope he will make known to you. Believe me that I appreciate the expressions of your letter more highly than I can well state, and I hope when the time comes, if it ever does, for an opportunity to reciprocate, you won't be found wanting. Again thanking you, and with very kind regards, I am, very sincerely yours,

"JOHN D. ARCHBOLD."

"Hon. J. L. McLaughlin, Senate Chamber, Washington, D. C."

"26 Broadway, Feb. 12, 1901.

"Mr. R. H. Edmunds, Baltimore, Md.: "Dear Mr. Edmunds—I have your several very interesting favors. I return Senator McLaughlin's letter with the clippings. The whole affair at Washington has been most interesting. Have been sorry, indeed, to hear of the Senator's illness. Mr. Gracom undertook to have a talk with him Monday through a mutual friend. Your own work in all this matter has been most admirable."

"Very truly yours,

"JOHN D. ARCHBOLD."

"26 Broadway, Feb. 15, 1901.

"Dear Mr. Sibley: I beg to inclose you herewith certificate of deposit for your favor for $5,000, sent you at the request of Mr. Gracom, the purpose of which you no doubt understand. Permit me to express my high appreciation of your most courteous attention in response to our request regarding the consideration subsidiary matter with Mr. Gracom."

"Very truly yours,

"JOHN D. ARCHBOLD."

"To Hon. J. C. Sibley, Washington, D. C."

"26 Broadway, Feb. 18, 1901.

"My Dear Senator: Please accept thanks for your note of the 16th. I am, of course, much interested in the statement. Have no doubt Mr. Sibley saw you on Saturday, as I requested him to do."

"Very truly yours,

"JOHN D. ARCHBOLD."

"Hon. John L. McLaughlin, Washington, D. C."

HAVE BIG CAMPAIGN FUND

Republican Receipts, Barring Gifts Outlawed, as Large as Usual.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 10.—The President to-day held brief political conferences with Earl Wight Republican national committee man from Louisiana, and Elmer Dover, secretary of the national advisory committee. Both brought encouraging reports regarding the Republican situation.

According to Mr. Dover, the campaign contributions are coming in as favorably as can be expected at New York. Eliminating the contributions now excluded by law, the contributions which thus far have been received are equal, he said, if not in excess, of those received in previous years up to this stage of the campaign.

He announced that from 75 to 80 per cent. of all the campaign contributions received by the national committee came from New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston and Pittsburgh. The latter which had been sent out by Treasurer Sheldon for $25 contributed $100,000 had brought one hundred replies in forty-eight hours.

GLENN SPEAKS FOR BRYAN

Urges New York Democrats to Support

NEW YORK, October 10.—Governor Robert B. Glenn, of North Carolina, speaking at the Democratic Commercial Travelers' League here to-day, appealed to his hearers to support the national and State Democratic tickets, and assured them that if Mr. Bryan is elected he will "take care of the trusts in Andrew Jackson fashion."

The Governor declared that Mr. Taft is not the nominee of the people, but is the personal candidate of President Roosevelt. "And now comes the husband of Miss Alice Roosevelt," continued Governor Glenn, "telling us that Mr. Roosevelt is going to be President again in 1916. Shades of Jefferson! God forbid that this country should submit to such a monarchical scheme as that."

Speaking of the labor injunction plank inserted in the Democratic platform, Governor Glenn said: "I was a delegate to the convention and know whereof I speak when I say that the Republicans threatened that, by the use of money, after they had turned down labor's request, they would elect Taft. They said we would not dare put the injunction in the platform. If we did not insert it, they said, we would be offered a fair fight in the campaign."

He said that although Bryan has been twice defeated, he is stronger to-day than any candidate before the country in years.

"Any man who says the South is going Republican does not know what he is talking about," said the Governor. "The South will vote Democratic, not because of sectional feeling—God knows we are for the Union and the united country and flag—but we will vote Democratic for the sake of all the people of this great country, and to take care of the masses and not the classes."

TAFT'S INTEREST IN SOUTH

Gratified at Its Progress, but Wants It to Become Republican.

CINCINNATI, OHIO, October 10.—"I am going South to make a few speeches in Kentucky, Tennessee, North Carolina, Virginia and Maryland, not so much with a view to carrying these States as to show their people that they are a part of the Union, and as such ought to vote for the party which will give them the influence in the nation to which they are entitled."

Judge Taft said this to the Taft-Sherman Club of Highlands, Ky., which came to the Simon to-day to pledge its support. His address throughout was an expression of intense feeling regarding the political situation in the South, which, he said, had made wonderful progress under the application of the Republican principles of protection, and yet it remained a perpetual asset to the Democracy of the North, to be delivered in black, no matter what might be the issue of interest at stake. The speech was heartily applauded.

Mr. Taft bustled himself during the day in cleaning up his office matters, preparatory to leaving Monday morning on a campaign trip.

suffered untold agonies from different diseases and were cured by Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey after they were given up to die. What wonder is it that doctors of all schools prescribe and use Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as the great tonic-stimulant, blood-purifier and body-builder!

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain. It is the most effective tonic-stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture, its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

It cures nervousness, typhoid, malaria, every form of stomach trouble, diseases of the throat and lungs, and all rundown and weakened conditions of the body, brain and nerves. It is prescribed by doctors and is recognized as a family medicine everywhere.

CAUTION.—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, be sure you get the genuine. It's the only absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey, and is sold in large sealed bottles only; never in bulk. Price $1.00. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Write Consulting Physician, Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. "I joined the Fire Department of South Boston in 1890, and was lately pensioned off because of a bad fall while in service, which telescoped my spine."

"A little over a year ago I was taken sick while in the engine house, and it developed into heart trouble and malaria. I went to a number of doctors and two different hospitals, and went through a course of treatment from each, but I did not receive much benefit from any of them. The doctors would not let me go in swimming, nor smoke, nor drink anything but water. I stopped both tea and coffee. My case was getting very serious when a friend said to me: 'Why don't you get a bottle of Duffy's Malt Whiskey? I know a man who was given up for all time, and he took Duffy's Malt Whiskey, and to-day he is as well a man as you can find.' So I commenced taking Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, and the result is that the doctors now say that I am all right, and I never felt better in my life. Of course I am very little good as far as heavy work is concerned, owing to my injury; but I am well, and that is a good thing to be able to say. I thank you for the remedy that put me on my feet again."—J. H. RILEY, 866 East Sixth Street, South Boston, Mass.

jestic Rink, in this city. The big hall was packed, and hundreds were turned away. The crowd interrupted the speaker so often with applause that he eventually asked the people to restrain their enthusiasm. His voice was so hoarse because of the tax upon it, aggravated by a cold, that he with difficulty made himself heard. Mr. Kern will leave to-morrow for Indianapolis, and after a two-days' rest will enter upon a campaign in the East.

Mr. Kern said that there was a great nonpartisan movement abroad in the land to "shake off the shackles forged by the protective tariff of the Republican party." The farmers and the merchants of the country who are doing a legitimate business, he said, and not profiting by special privileges, are tired of buying materials and necessities in a protected market and selling in a free trade market. "And you laboring men," he continued, "have seen the grasp of monopoly tightening upon you and have observed that in the execution of the laws of the land the laboring man is discriminated against. For illustration, the law of the injunction is enforced, with one rule applying to you in your effort to secure better wages and hours, and another to the rich. And the man who instituted this government by injunction has been promoted thereby by being made the Republican candidate for President."

BROTHERS MAKES APOLOGY

FOR HIS BURST OF TEMPER

NEW YORK, October 10.—At the 14th annual Canal hearing to-day, an apology for the outburst of yesterday's session was offered by Samuel B. Thomas, attorney for William F. Brothers, president of the Balanced Cable Crane Company, of New York, whose charges of unfairness against the canal commission in the matter of awarding contracts are being investigated in the army building here.

Major W. L. Sibert testified that so far as he knew there was no collusion in giving improper information on the part of any employees of the canal to any of the competitive bidders. The inquiry was adjourned until October 16th.
